RA Sushi Offers “Manic Monday” Special to Help Taxpayers Cope with Tax Day
Happy Hour Pricing Extended to Close at all RA Locations Nationwide on April 18

Scottsdale, Ariz. (March 30, 2011) – Tax season is here, which means the dreaded day is looming. This year, the tax return deadline has been extended to Monday, April 18, adding stress to an already loathed day of the week. To give taxpayers incentive for getting the dreaded task done early or providing a little relief for those who procrastinated, RA Sushi has created a “Manic Monday” special, extending its Happy Hour from 3 p.m. to close at all 25 RA locations nationwide on April 18.

Keeping a little money in their pockets, on tax day guests can choose from more than 35 sushi, appetizer, and tapas selections, plus a wide variety of beer, wine and signature cocktails ranging from $2 to $7. RA Sushi’s Happy Hour typically runs from 3 to 7 p.m., but on Manic Monday, Happy Hour specials will be offered from 3 p.m. until close.

Updated earlier this year, the Happy Hour menu has been expanded to include new menu items, plus a variety of RA’s most popular dishes. Now included in the selections are new tapas plates: Garlic Sugar Snap Peas and Shishito Peppers. Joining the Happy Hour roundup are favorite dishes: Squid Salad, Seaweed Salad, Spicy Salmon Roll, RA Tapas, Rainbow Roll, and Tuna Tataki.

The Manic Monday special is available for dine in orders only, and it is offered at all 25 RA Sushi locations nationwide in Arizona, California, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Kansas, Maryland, Nevada, and Texas.
