RA Sushi at CITYCENTRE Ramps Up Patio Pickings with Geisha Lounge New Secluded Bar Offers Romantic Respite, Rooftop Views of District

HOUSTON (Jan. 27, 2011) – RA Sushi at CITYCENTRE is expanding its second floor patio space, renovating a secluded area on the south side of the building, tucked away near the back of the restaurant apart from the rest of the dining areas, which, as of opening in Spring 2011, will be referred to as the Geisha Lounge.

The 1,000-square-foot patio space features a private bar, plasma TV, and rooftop views of the CITYCENTRE district and beyond. Geisha Lounge's décor mirrors the sleek, sophisticated lines expected of RA Sushi, featuring chic black tables interspersed with modern sofas and chairs, and soft, banquette seating lining the patio's perimeter with RA's signature true red accents throughout on throw pillows, candles, and barstools. Rugged exposed brick walls and polished cement floors hem the space, presenting an industrial ambiance perfectly juxtaposed with its comfortable lounge seating.

Geisha Lounge guarantees the same energetic music and mood patrons already love at RA Sushi. Guests have the option to order from the popular Happy Hour menu or simply relax and enjoy cocktails pre- or post-dinner inside the restaurant.

Upon debuting in Spring 2011, Geisha Lounge at the popular RA Sushi at CITYCENTRE will be open Thursday through Sunday for Happy Hour until close (3 p.m. to 1 a.m.). In addition to opening to the public on weekends, the Geisha Lounge is available for private events, holding up to 60 people for cocktail receptions; fewer for seated lunches and dinners.
